To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Yossi Raz, and I am the Men's Soccer Head Coach at UC Irvine. I was asked to write a recommendation letter for my dear friend and colleague Bryan Wallace. Thus, see the writing below as my sincere opinion of Bryan.

I have had the privilege of working with Bryan for over 15 years in many different roles, and I have also gotten to know Bryan in a variety of capacities. Regardless of the event we collaborated on, he always demonstrated high level of professional approach to the task, a wonderful grace to the people involved and quality knowledge regarding the sport. Bryan is always loved by the players and respected by his colleagues which is a perfect combination to those that educate Futbol.

In terms of Bryan's character, you will find him to be honest, caring, considerate, competitive, driven, compassionate and always willing to place his teams and his programs interest first. Bryan has led his teams to numerous tournament success, both on the national stage as well as internationally. He has been regarded as one of the top coaches in his position for many years and one of the best coaches that I have had the privilege of working with. Bryan has been a great role model and leader on and off the soccer field. He is organized, hard-working, dedicated, loyal, efficient, creative, competent, forward thinking and has an excellent rapport with people of all ages, and his communication skills, both written and verbal are excellent. In short Bryan will be an asset to any institution.

It is without any hesitation, I would like to extend my warmest support for Bryan Wallace. I'm confident that he is not only going to lead St. Margaret's Episcopal Soccer program to success but I'm sure he will elevate the entire athletic department. Please don't hesitate to contact me if I can be of further assistance via Email - YRaz@uci.edu or (818) 442 1256 Cell.

Sincerely,

Yossi Raz
Head Men's Soccer Coach
